PRESIDENT IS SATISFIED HE WILL CARRY NEW YORK

New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Colorado, Montana, Idaho and Utah are the states which the national democratic committee will make the hardest effort to capture. Of these Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia, Colorado, Wisconsin, Montana and Utah are recognized by the republicans generally as doubtful for various reasons. Some republicans, worried by the return of the considerable percentage of gold democrats to the party fold and by the fact that the democratic candidate for president is a native of New York are disposed to be apprehensive about that state. Chairman Cortelyou, himself, has classed New York with the doubtful states. It is believed, however, that Mr. Cortelyou is not afraid that the democrats will carry New York, but that appreciating the prime importance of carrying New York and understanding the varying influences which may affect the result there, he regards it as wisest to take nothing for granted and to treat the Empire state as if it were doubtful. That is good politics and it does no harm in collecting money for legitimate campaign purposes to class the greatest state in the union in the doubtful class. It can be said right here that President Roosevelt, who knows New York thoroughly, does not for a moment concede that New York is doubtful. He has every confidence the republican campaign managers. The nomination of an Indiana man for vice-president is always a source of strength to the party which makes the nomination. This is particularly true of Senator Fairbanks, whose conservatism and devotion to the interests of the state make him especially popular. He inherits, too, much of the McKinley strength. Of course, Chairman Taggart will do all he can to carry his own state, as a matter of personal pride, but this is not a year when political trickery or any great use of money will prevail in Indiana. The statement by W. D. Bynum, former member of congress from the Indianapolis district, a gold democrat, that Indiana will be republican by 25,000 to 40,000, coming from a man who knows his Indiana well, is most significant.

Notwithstanding their sharp fight over the gubernatorial nomination, the republicans of Illinois were never in better shape than now. They are united and their candidate for governor, State's Attorney Deneen, is popular with the independent citizens, the men who stand for good government. By his deeds he has won their confidence. The Illinois democrats are still badly split. It is possible the beef strike may work to the injury of the republicans, but Senators Cullom and Hopkins, of Illinois, who were here a few days ago, insisted that the strike would

THE NEW SECRETARY OF THE NAVY.

Paul Morton, who succeeded the present attorney general, W. H. Moody, as secretary of the navy, is a son of the late J. Sterling Morton, secretary of agriculture during President Cleveland's second term. Young Mr. Morton was born in Detroit in 1867 and since 1890 has been in the railroad business. At the time of his recent appointment to the cabinet he was third vice president of the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad.

In the result there. It may be said that the president relies on the young men and on the independent voters who have always been with him in matters of reform. He knows that he can depend upon the loyalty of the straight-out republicans. All that is necessary as far as they are concerned is to get them out to vote.

Connecticut and New Jersey are not for a moment placed in the doubtful column by republicans. The protective tariff policy and the establishment of the gold standard by the republicans are thought to be enough to hold those states in line against the democrats with their candidate who has, after voting for Bryan on the silver platform in 1896 and 1900, simply said he accepts the financial issue as settled and falls to admit that it was settled by the republicans whom he would put out of power for doing what he, Parker, voted against doing in two presidential elections.

Delaware is doubtful, simply because of the miserable factional fight among the republicans, a fight in which the republicans of the state have been corrupted by one faction and split in twain. Maryland is in doubt because of the Gorman election law. It will probably go democratic, but not without the hardest kind of a fight by the republicans. West Virginia is doubtful, especially because of the candidacy of Henry G. Davis for vice-president. West Virginia never had a vice-presidential candidate before, and state pride goes a long way, particularly in the case of a man who has done so much to develop its industrial possibilities. West Virginia is doubtful, too, because of some mistakes by republicans in state affairs. But Senator Scott, of that state, who is to be in charge of eastern republican headquarters, according to reliable reports, maintains that the state is not doubtful, calculating upon the loss of no more than 5000 votes by the return of gold democrats to the party and of less than 2000 because of Mr. Davis' personal popularity.

Indiana is not doubtful, according to

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average bald-headed man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, inoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

"Destroy the cause—you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
